

Symposium on Neuroethics
of Memory

Presenters are leaders in the fields of neuroscience, neurology, and ethics

Friday, December 9, 2011
9:00AM – 4:00PM

at SUNY Global Center
116 East 55th Street
New York, NY

No registration fee, but pre-registration is required
For more information, downstate.edu/grad

Sponsored by SUNY Downstate Medical Center
John Conley Division of Medical Ethics & Humanities
School of Graduate Studies and College of Medicine

SUNY Downstate Medical Center

Symposium on Neuroethics of Memory
@ SUNY Global Center
(116 East 55th Street, bet. Park & Lexington Avenues)

Friday, December 9, 2011
9:00 am – 4:00 pm

Registration for Attendance at SUNY Global Center (Symposium will also be available via videoconference in SUNY Downstate Medical Center Biomedical Communications studio.)

Name: _____

Institution: _____

Email: _____

Telephone: _____

FAX: _____

Any dietary restrictions: _____

Please email registration to ellen.telesca@downstate.edu, or FAX to (718) 270-3378 by December 5, 2011.

There is no registration fee, thanks to the generous support of the John Conley Foundation for Ethics and Philosophy in Medicine.

The Neuroethics of Memory symposium program with speakers and session titles will be available at www.downstate.edu/grad and will be sent to those who register. For more information, contact Dr. Kathleen Powderly, Kathleen.Powderly@downstate.edu, (718) 270-3140.