

FACULTY POSITIONS
Medical Ethics
NYU Abu Dhabi

New York University Abu Dhabi, a part of New York University's global network, invites applications for a position in medical ethics at the rank of assistant or associate professor (tenure track). Applicants must have a PhD or a JD. Successful applicants will be expected to demonstrate a strong scholarly career track in a sub-field of medical ethics/bioethics. We seek outstanding teachers in medical ethics and bio ethics who have research interests in neuroethics, reproductive technologies and ethics, public health ethics, research ethics, research integrity and mental health ethics. Interdisciplinary interests are encouraged, and some background in science, medicine, or health policy is desirable.

New York University has established itself as a Global Network University, a multi- site, organically connected network encompassing key global cities and idea capitals. The network has three degree-granting campuses - New York, Shanghai, and Abu Dhabi - complemented by 12 additional academic centers across five continents. Faculty and students will circulate within the network in pursuit of common research interests and cross-cultural, interdisciplinary endeavors, both local and global.

Entering its fourth year, NYU Abu Dhabi has recruited a cohort of faculty who are at once distinguished in their research and teaching. Our students are drawn from around the world and surpass all traditional recruitment benchmarks, both US and global. NYU Abu Dhabi's highly selective liberal arts enterprise is complemented by an institute for advanced research, sponsoring cutting-edge projects across the Arts, Humanities, Social Sciences, Sciences, and Engineering.

The terms of employment are highly competitive and include housing and educational subsidies for children. Faculty may also spend time at NYU New York and other sites of the global network, engaging in both research and teaching opportunities. Faculty will also be affiliated with the Department of Population Health at NYULMC in NYU New York.

Applications are due by December 1, 2013; however, applications received later will be reviewed until the positions are filled. Candidates should submit a cover letter, curriculum vitae and three letters of reference in PDF format to be considered.
